From (Name) C.A. Souter, Esquire, I.C.S.,

(Designation) Collector of South Kanara.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Law (General) Department.

Sir,

At present Haradi village of Udipi Taluk is included within the jurisdiction of Balakudru Panchayat Court of the said Taluk. The villagers of Haradi request that the ---- village may be transferred to the jurisdiction of Chantar - Panchayat Court on the following grounds:-

That Balkudru village being within the local --- limits of Coondapoor District Munsif's Court, and Haradi -- village being within that of Udipi District Munsif's Court, the villager's have to file their execution petitions in --- Coondapoor District Munsif's Court and get them transferred to the Udipi District Munsif's Court. This entails extra trouble and cost.

(2) that there is a big river between Haradi and Balkudru which causes also extra cost and trouble to the litigent public. It is dangerous to cord the river during the rainy season. The Tahsildar reports that the difficulties experienced by the villagers are real.

I therefore recommend the transfer of Haradi village from the jurisdiction of Balkudru Panchayat Court to that of Chantar. The Panchayat Court at Balkudru was sanctioned in G.O.No.1019, Home Department, dated 19th April 1920 and that at Chantar in G.O.No.1020, Home Department, dated 4th August 1920.
